

International Study Programme Spring 2023

Social Work and Health Professions in the Context of Culture and Diversity

- What?
- Programme in English by two universities in Bochum, Germany
 - Up to 30 ECTS credits in a blend of regular semester-long seminars and compact courses
 - International classes with German and international students
 - Intercultural and interdisciplinary approach: Insights into social and health-related issues raised by the changing of our societies from the perspective of two universities and from international experts from our partner universities worldwide

- Who?
- Students from our partner universities, who have completed their first year of undergraduate studies
 - Students in the broader fields of study of Social Work and Welfare, Public Health and Life Sciences such as Nursing, as well as related fields of study

- When?
- March – July 2023
 - Application deadline: 31 October 2022

Further details on the programme, application procedures and requirements:

Protestant University of Applied Sciences (EvH RWL)

www.evh-bochum.de/international-study-programme.html

Hochschule für Gesundheit - University of Applied Sciences (HS Gesundheit)

www.hs-gesundheit.de/isp